Explore North Creek Forest

North Creek Forest is not open to the public yet, but Friends of North Creek Forest's Community Programs allow you to experience Bothell's newest forest preserve. Join us this spring for a Hands-on Work Party, Forest Foray, Naturalist Hike or Fitness Hike.

Forest Forays - Learn about FNCF and the campaign to preserve North Creek Forest. Visit a restoration site and hear about plans for the future on this gentle, one-hour walk into the forest.

Naturalist Hikes - Join a trained naturalist for a 2-hour interpretive hike through the forest learning about its cultural & natural history. Moderate pace

Fitness Hikes – Breathe the fresh forest air and build a bit of exercise into your school or work day. Take a nature break with us every Thursday at noon. Brisk pace.

Work Parties – Learn about Restoration Ecology while you remove invasives and tend to native plantings. Hands-on Service Learning for all ages!

There is no fee for these programs; donations are appreciated.
Boots recommended, closed toe shoes required.
